blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

but his delight is in the law of the lord;
and in his law doth he meditate day
and night.

and he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

the ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

for the lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

2

why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

the kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the lord, and against his anointed, saying,

let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

he that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the lord shall have them in derision.

then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure.

yet have i set my king upon my holy hill of zion.

i will declare the decree: the lord hath said unto me, thou art my son; this day have i begotten thee.

ask of me, and i shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

be wise now therefore, o ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

serve the lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

kiss the son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

o lord, our lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

when i consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;
what is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

for thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet:

all sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

the fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

his mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and vanity.

he sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes are privily set against the poor.

he lieth in wait secretly as a lion in his den: he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.

he croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by his strong ones.

he hath said in his heart, god hath forgotten: he hideth his face; he will never see it.

arise, o lord; o god, lift up thine hand: forget not the humble.

wherefore doth the wicked contemn god? he hath said in his heart, thou wilt not require it.

thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the poor committeth himself unto thee; thou art the helper of the fatherless.

break thou the arm of the wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness till thou find none.

the lord is king for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of his land.

lord, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear:

to judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more oppress.

the heavens declare the glory of god;
and the firmament sheweth his handy-work.

day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

there is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. in them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,
which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

his going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

the law of the lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the lord is sure, making wise the simple.
the statutes of the lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

the fear of the lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the lord are true and righteous altogether.

more to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

who can understand his errors?
cleanse thou me from secret faults.

keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall i be upright, and i shall be innocent from the great transgression.

let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, o lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

i will bless the lord at all times:
his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

my soul shall make her boast in the lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.
o magnify the lord with me, and let us exalt his name together.
i sought the lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

they looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.
this poor man cried, and the lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.
the angel of the lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

o taste and see that the lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

o fear the lord, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.
the young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the lord shall not want any good thing.
come, ye children, hearken unto me: i will teach you the fear of the lord.

what man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?
keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

the transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of god before his eyes.

for he flattereth himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

the words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.

he deviseth mischief upon his bed; he setteth himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil.

thy mercy, o lord, is in the heavens; and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

thy righteousness is like the great mountains; thy judgments are a great deep: o lord, thou preservest man and beast.

how excellent is thy lovingkindness, o god! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

they shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

for with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.

o continue thy lovingkindness unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart.

let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me.

there are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.

fret not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

for they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

trust in the lord, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

delight thyself also in the lord: and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

commit thy way unto the lord; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.

and he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday.

because lana my sins athami may be qad she died Tamat above faoqa my head rasi. as a lamb kahiml heavy thaqil heavier athqala than mima i bear ahtamilu.

my wounds stink and are corrupt because of my foolishness.

i am troubled; i am bowed down greatly; i go mourning all the day long.

for my loins are filled with a loathsome disease: and there is no soundness in my flesh.

i am feeble and sore broken: i have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

lord, all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee.

my heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me.

my lovers and my friends stand aloof from my sore; and my kinsmen stand afar off.

they also that seek after my life lay snares for me: and they that seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and imagine deceits all the day long.

but i, as a deaf man, heard not; and i was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.

thus i was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

for in thee, o lord, do i hope: thou wilt hear, o lord my god.

for i said, hear me, lest otherwise they should rejoice over me: when my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me.

for i am ready to halt, and my sorrow is continually before me.

for i will declare mine iniquity; i will be sorry for my sin.

but mine enemies are lively, and they are strong: and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied.

they also that render evil for good are mine adversaries; because i follow the thing that good is.

forsake me not, o lord: o my god, be not far from me.

make haste to help me, o lord my salvation.

i was dumb with silence, i held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was stirred.

my heart was hot within me, while i was musing the fire burned: then spake i with my tongue, lord, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is: that i may know how frail i am.
behold, thou hast made my days as an handbreadth; and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. selah.
surely every man walketh in a vain shew: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heappeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

and now, lord, what wait i for? my hope is in thee.
deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not the reproach of the foolish.

i was dumb, i opened not my mouth; because thou didst it.
remove thy stroke away from me: i am consumed by the blow of thine hand.

when thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity. selah.

hear my prayer, o lord, and give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears: for i am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.

o spare me, that i may recover strength, before i go hence, and be no more.

i waited patiently for the lord; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

he brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

and he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our god: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the lord.

many, o lord my god, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if i would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou opened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.

then said i, lo, i come: in the volume of the book it is written of me, i delight to do thy will, o my god: yea, thy law is within my heart.

i have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, i have not refrained my lips, o lord, thou knowest.

i have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; i have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: i have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, o lord: let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

for innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that i am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore my heart faileth me.

in god we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. selah.

but thou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies.

thou makest us to turn back from the enemy: and they which hate us spoil for themselves.

thou hast given us like sheep appointed for meat; and hast scattered us among the heathen.

thou sellest thy people for nought, and dost not increase thy wealth by their price.

thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.

thou makest us a byword among the heathen, a shaking of the head among the people.

my confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me, my heart is inditing a good matter: i speak of the things which i have made touching the king: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

thou art fairer than the children of men: grace is poured into thy lips:
therefore god hath blessed thee for ever.

gird thy sword upon thy thigh, o most mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty.

and in thy majesty ride prosperously because of truth and meekness and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee three terrible things.

thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; whereby the people fall under thee.

thy throne, o god, is for ever and ever:
the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.

thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore god, thy god, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

all thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

king's daughters were among thy honourable women: upon thy right hand did stand the queen in gold of ophir.
hearken, o daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear; forget also thine own people, and thy father's house;
so shall the king greatly desire thy beauty: for he is thy lord; and worship thou him.

and the daughter of tyre shall be there with a gift; even the rich among the people shall intreat thy favour.

the king's daughter is all glorious hear this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

both low and high, rich and poor, together.

my mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

i will incline mine ear to a parable: i will open my dark saying upon the harp.

wherefore should i fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about?

they that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;

none of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to god a ransom for him:

(for the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever:)

that he should still live for ever, and not see corruption.

for he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations; they call their lands after their own names.

nevertheless man being in honour abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish.

in their way is their folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings. selah.

like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling.

but god will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for he shall receive me. selah.

be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased;

for when he dieth he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.

though while he lived he blessed his soul: and men will praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself.

he shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall never see light.

from the end of the earth will i cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than i.

for thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.

i will abide in thy tabernacle for ever:
i will trust in the covert of thy wings.
selah.

for thou, o god, hast heard my vows:
thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.

thou wilt prolong the king's life: and his years as many generations.

he shall abide before god for ever: o prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve him.

so will i sing praise unto thy name for ever, that i may daily perform my vows.

truly my soul waiteth upon god: from him cometh my salvation.

he only is my rock and my salvation;
he is my defence; i shall not be greatly moved.

how long will ye imagine mischief against a man? ye shall be slain all of you: as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.

they only consult to cast him down from his excellency: they delight in lies: they bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. selah.

my soul, wait thou only upon god; for my expectation is from him.

he only is my rock and my salvation:
he is my defence; i shall not be moved.

in god is my salvation and my glory:
the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in god.

trust in him at all times; ye people, pour out your heart before him: god is a refuge for us. selah.

surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity.

female tamat prayers Salaoatu david daoda the son of bni yassa iasa truly god is good to israel, even to such as are of a clean heart.

but as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped.

for i was envious at the foolish, when i saw the prosperity of the wicked.

for there are no bands in their death: but their strength is firm.

they are not in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued like other men.

therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them as a garment.

their eyes stand out with fatness: they have more than heart could wish.

they are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily.

they set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth.

therefore his people return hither: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.

and they say, how doth god know? and is there knowledge in the most high?

behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

verily i have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocence.

for all the day long have i been plagued, and chastened every morning.

if i say, i will speak thus; behold, i should offend against the generation of thy children.

when i thought to know this, it was too painful for me; until i went into the sanctuary of god; then understood i their end.

surely thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

how are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

as a dream when one awaketh; so, o lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

thus my heart was grieved, and i was pricked in my reins.

o god, why hast thou cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?

remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old; the rod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations; even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary.

thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; they set up their ensigns for signs.

a man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees.

but now they break down the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers.

they have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground.

they said in their hearts, let us destroy them together: they have burned up all the synagogues of god in the land.

we see not our signs: there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

o god, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?

why withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom.

for god is my king of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

for he established a testimony in jacob, and appointed a law in israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children:

that the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children:

that they might set their hope in god, and not forget the works of god, but keep his commandments:

and might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not steadfast with god.

the children of ephraim, being armed, and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.

they kept not the covenant of god, and refused to walk in his law; and forgot his works, and his wonders that he had shewed them.

marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers, in the land of egypt, in the field of zoan.

he divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand as an heap.

in the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

he clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.

he brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

and they sinned yet more against him by provoking the most high in the wilderness.

and they tempted god in their heart by asking meat for their lust.

yea, they spake against god; they said, can god furnish a table in the wilderness?

behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people?

therefore the lord heard this, and was wroth: so a fire was kindled against jacob, and anger also came up against israel;

because they believed not in god, and trusted not in his salvation:

set up aqama degree shahadahn in fi yaaqoub iaeqoba and put it oaoaDaea law sharieahn in fi israel aisraiila that alati i recommend aoSa our fathers aba'ana that an they know iuearifoa with it biha their children abna'ahum though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors of heaven,

and had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven.
man did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full.

he caused an east wind to blow in the heaven: and by his power he brought in the south wind.
he rained flesh also upon them as dust,
and feathered fowls like as the sand of
the sea:
and he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.
so they did eat, and were well filled:
for he gave them their own desire;

they were not estranged from their lust. but while their meat was yet in their mouths,
the wrath of god came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and smote down the chosen men of israel.

for all this they sinned still, and believed not for his wondrous works.

therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble.
when he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned and enquired early after god.
and they remembered that god was their rock, and the high god their redeemer.
nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues.
for their heart was not right with him, neither were they stedfast in his covenant.
but he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath.
for he remembered that they were but flesh; a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.
how oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert!
yea, they turned back and tempted god, and limited the holy one of israel.

he made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence;

and smote all the firstborn in egypt;
the chief of their strength in the taber-

from mina the night allaili.

i swept them away jaraftahum. as a year kasinah they are iakonona. with lunch bialghadahi as a herb kaeshb he goes away iacolu.

with lunch bialghadahi it blooms iuchiru and it goes away faiacolu. when einda evening almasa'i mowed iujacu withered; faiaibasus.

for we are consumed by thine anger,
and by thy wrath are we troubled.

thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

for all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years as a tale that is told.

the days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

so teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.
return, o lord, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

o satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

let thy work appear unto thy servants,
and thy glory unto their children.

and let the beauty of the lord our god be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

he that dwelleth in the secret place of the most high shall abide under the shadow of the almighty.

i will say of the lord, he is my refuge and my fortress: my god; in him will i trust.

surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

he shall cover thee with his feathers,
and under his wings shalt thou trust:
his truth shall be thy shield and buck-ler.

thou shalt not be afraid for the terror
by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

a thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

it is a good thing to give thanks unto the lord, and to sing praises unto thy name, o most high:

to shew forth thy lovingkindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness every night,
upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery; upon the harp with a solemn sound.

for thou, lord, hast made me glad through thy work: i will triumph in the works of thy hands.

o lord, how great are thy works! and thy thoughts are very deep.

a brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

when the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever:

but thou, lord, art most high for evermore.

for, lo, thine enemies, o lord, for,
lo, thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

but my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of an unicorn: i shall be anointed with fresh oil.

sing unto the lord, bless his name; shew forth his salvation from day to day.

declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people.

for the lord is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods.

for all the gods of the nations are idols: but the lord made the heavens.

honour and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

give unto the lord, o ye kindreds of the people, give unto the lord glory and strength.

give unto the lord the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.

o worship the lord in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

say among the heathen that the lord reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: he shall judge the people righteously.

let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.

let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice before the lord: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

hear my prayer, o lord, and let my cry come unto thee.

hide not thy face from me in the day when i am in trouble; incline thine ear unto me: in the day when i call answer me speedily.
for my days are consumed like smoke, and my bones are burned as an hearth.

my heart is smitten, and withered like grass; so that i forget to eat my bread.

by reason of the voice of my groaning my bones cleave to my skin.
i am like a pelican of the wilderness: i am like an owl of the desert.
i watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house top.
mine enemies reproach me all the day; and they that are mad against me are sworn against me.
for i have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping, because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.

my days are like a shadow that declineth; and i am withered like grass.
but thou, o lord, shalt endure for ever; and thy remembrance unto all generations.
thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come.
for thy servants take pleasure in her stones, and favour the dust thereof.

so the heathen shall fear the name of the lord, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.
when the lord shall build up zion, he shall appear in his glory.
he will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.

and confirmed the same unto jacob for a law, and to israel for an everlasting covenant:

saying, unto thee will i give the land of canaan, the lot of your inheritance:

when they were but a few men in number; yea, very few, and strangers in it. when they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people;

he suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproveth kings for their sakes; saying, touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

moreover he called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole staff of bread.

he sent a man before them, even joseph, who was sold for a servant:

whose feet they hurt with fetters: he was laid in iron:

and he increased his people greatly; and made them stronger than their enemies.

he turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtly with his servants.

he sent mores his servant; and aaron whom he had chosen.

they shewed his signs among them, and wonders in the land of ham.

he sent darkness, and made it dark; and they rebelled not against his word. he turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish.

their land brought forth frogs in abundance, in the chambers of their kings. he spake, and there came divers sorts of flies, and lice in all their coasts.

he gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land.

he smote their vines also and their fig trees; and brake the trees of their coasts.

he spake, and the locusts came, and caterpillars, and that without number, and did eat up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

he smote also all the firstborn in their land, the chief of all their strength.

he brought them forth also with silver and gold: and there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

 let his days be few; and let another take his office.
 let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.
 let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg: let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places.
 let the extortioner catch all that he hath; and let the strangers spoil his labour.
 let there be none to extend mercy unto him: neither let there be any to favour his fatherless children.
 let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let their name be blotted out. let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the lord; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out. let them be before the lord continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.
 because that he remembered not to shew mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the broken in heart.

as he loved cursing, so let it come unto him: as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.

the works of the lord are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

his work is honourable and glorious: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

he hath made his wonderful works to be remembered: the lord is gracious and full of compassion.

he hath given meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant.

he hath shewed his people the power of his works, that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

the works of his hands are verity and judgment; all his commandments are sure.

they stand fast for ever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness.

he sent redemption unto his people: he hath commanded his covenant for ever: holy and reverend is his name.

the fear of the lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever.

mine eyes prevent the night watches, that i might meditate in thy word.
hear my voice according unto thy lovingkindness: o lord, quicken me according to thy judgment.
they draw nigh that follow after mischief: they are far from thy law.

thou art near, o lord; and all thy commandments are truth.
concerning thy testimonies, i have known of old that thou hast founded them for ever.
consider mine affliction, and deliver me: for i do not forget thy law.

plead my cause, and deliver me:
quicken me according to thy word.
salvation is far from the wicked: for they seek not thy statutes.

i was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the lord.

our feet shall stand within thy gates, o jerusalem.

jerusalem is builded as a city that is compact together:

whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the lord, unto the testimony of israel, to give thanks unto the name of the lord.

for there are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of david.

pray for the peace of jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.

for my brethren and companions' sakes, i will now say, peace be within thee.

because of the house of the lord our god i will seek thy good.

unto thee lift i up mine eyes, o thou that dwellest in the heavens.

behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the lord our god, until that he have mercy upon us.

have mercy upon us, o lord, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

i will also clothe her priests with salvation: and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

there will i make the horn of david to bud: i have ordained a lamp for mine anointed.

his enemies will i clothe with shame: but upon himself shall his crown flourish.

behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

it is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments; as the dew of hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of zion: for there the lord commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.

behold, bless ye the lord, all ye servants of the lord, which by night stand in the house of the lord.

lift up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless the lord.

the lord that made heaven and earth bless thee out of zion.

praise ye the lord. praise ye the name of the lord; praise him, o ye servants of the lord.

ye that stand in the house of the lord, in the courts of the house of our god, praise the lord; for the lord is good: sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant.

for the lord hath chosen jacob unto himself, and israel for his peculiar treasure.

for i know that the lord is great, and that our lord is above all gods.

whatsoever the lord pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth, in the seas, and all deep places.

he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain; he bringeth the wind out of his treasures.

thou hast beset me behind and before,
and laid thine hand upon me.

such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, i cannot attain unto it.
whither shall i go from thy spirit? or whither shall i flee from thy presence?

if i ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if i make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

if i take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

if i say, surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.

yea, the darkness hideth not from thee;
but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

for thou hast possessed my reins:
thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

i will praise thee; for i am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.

my substance was not hid from thee,
when i was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

thine eyes did see my substance, yet being imperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

how precious also are thy thoughts unto me, o god! how great is the sum of them!

if i should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when i awake, i am still with thee.

surely thou wilt slay the wicked, o god:
depart from me therefore, ye bloody men.

for they speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain.

do not i hate them, o lord, that hate thee? and am not i grieved with those that rise up against thee?

i hate them with perfect hatred: i count them mine enemies.

search me, o god, and know my heart:
try me, and know my thoughts:

and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

but mine eyes are unto thee, o god the lord: in thee is my trust; leave not my soul destitute.
keep me from the snares which they have laid for me, and the gins of the workers of iniquity.
let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst that i withal escape.

i cried unto the lord with my voice; with my voice unto the lord did i make my supplication.

i poured out my complaint before him; i shewed before him my trouble.
when my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path. in the way wherein i walked have they privily laid a snare for me.
i looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul.
i cried unto thee, o lord: i said, thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living.
attend unto my cry; for i am brought very low: deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than i.

bring my soul out of prison, that i may praise thy name: the righteous shall compass me about; for thou shalt deal bountifully with me.

hear my prayer, o lord, give ear to my supplications: in thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.

and enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

for the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground; he hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead.
therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me; my heart within me is desolate.
