blessed is the man who doesn't walk in the counsel of the wicked, nor stand on the path of sinners, nor sit in the seat of scoffers; but his delight is in yahweh's law. on his law he meditates day and night.

he will be like a tree planted by the streams of water, that produces its fruit in its season, whose leaf also does not wither. whatever he does shall prosper.

the wicked are not so, but are like the chaff which the wind drives away.

therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

for yahweh knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked shall perish.

why do the nations rage, and the peoples plot a vain thing?

the kings of the earth take a stand, and the rulers take counsel together, against yahweh, and against his anointed, saying,

"let's break their bonds apart, and cast their cords from us."

he who sits in the heavens will laugh. the lord will have them in derision.

ask of me, and i will give the nations for your inheritance, the uttermost parts of the earth for your possession. you shall break them with a rod of iron. you shall dash them in pieces like a potter’s vessel.”

now therefore be wise, you kings. be instructed, you judges of the earth.

for the chief musician. by david the servant of yahweh, who spoke to yahweh the words of this song in the day that yahweh delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of saul. he said, i love you, yahweh, my strength.

yahweh is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer; my god, my rock, in whom i take refuge; my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.

i call on yahweh, who is worthy to be praised; and i am saved from my enemies.

the cords of death surrounded me. the floods of ungodliness made me afraid.

the cords of sheol were around me. the snares of death came on me.

in my distress i called on yahweh, and cried to my god. he heard my voice out of his temple. my cry before him came into his ears.

then the earth shook and trembled. the foundations also of the mountains quaked and were shaken, because he was angry.

he rode on a cherub, and flew.
yes, he soared on the wings of the wind.

he made darkness his hid-yahweh also thundered in the sky. the most high uttered his voice: hailstones and coals of fire.

he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; yes, great lightning bolts, and routed them.

then the channels of waters for the chief musician. a psalm by david. the heavens declare the glory of god. the expanse shows his handiwork.

day after day they pour out speech, and night after night they display knowledge.

there is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

their voice has gone out through all the earth, their words to the end of the world. in them he has set a tent for the sun, you have given him his heart's desire, and have not withheld the request of his lips. selah.

for you meet him with the blessings of goodness. you set a crown of fine gold on his head.

he asked life of you, you gave it to him, even length of days forever and ever.

his glory is great in your salvation. you lay honor and majesty on him.

for you make him most blessed forever. you make him glad with joy in your presence.

for the king trusts in yahweh. through the loving kindness of the most high, he shall not be moved.

your hand will find out all of your enemies. your right hand will find out those who hate you.

you will make them as a fiery furnace in the time of your anger. yahweh will swallow them up in his wrath. the fire shall devour them.

you will destroy their descendants from the earth, their posterity from among the children of men.

a psalm by david. the earth is yahweh's, with its fullness; the world, and those who dwell therein.

for he has founded it on the seas, and established it on the floods.

who may ascend to yahweh's hill? who may stand in his holy place?

he who has clean hands and a pure heart; who has not lifted up his soul to falsehood, and has not sworn deceitfully.

he shall receive a blessing from yahweh, righteousness from the god of his salvation.

this is the generation of those who seek him, who seek your face — even jacob. selah.

lift up your heads, you gates! be lifted up, you everlasting doors, and the king of glory will come in.

who is the king of glory? yahweh strong and mighty, yahweh mighty in battle.

lift up your heads, you gates; yes, lift them up, you everlasting doors, and the king of glory will come in.

who is this king of glory? yahweh of armies is the king of glory! selah.

when evildoers came at me to eat up my flesh, even my adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell.

though an army should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear. though war should rise against me, even then i will be confident.

one thing i have asked of yahweh, that i will seek after: that i may dwell in yahweh's house all the days of my life, to see yahweh's beauty, and to inquire in his temple.

for in the day of trouble he will keep me secretly in his pavilion. in the covert of his tabernacle he will hide me. he will lift me up on a rock.

now my head will be lifted up above my enemies around me; i will offer sacrifices of joy in his tent. i will sing, yes, i will sing praises to yahweh.

hear, yahweh, when i cry with my voice. have mercy also on me, and answer me.

give them according to their work, and according to the wickedness of their doings. give them according to the operation of their hands. bring back on them what they deserve.

because they don't respect the works of yahweh, nor the operation of his hands, he will break them down and not build them up.

blessed be yahweh, because he has heard the voice of my petitions.

yahweh is my strength and my shield. my heart has trusted in him, and i am helped. therefore my heart greatly rejoices. with my song i will thank him.

yahweh is their strength. he is a stronghold of salvation to his anointed.

yahweh's voice breaks the cedars. yes, yahweh breaks in pieces the cedars of lebanon.

he makes them also to skip like a calf; lebanon and sirion like a young, wild ox.

yahweh's voice strikes with flashes of lightning.

yahweh's voice shakes the wilderness. yahweh shakes the wilderness of kadesh.

yahweh's voice makes the deer calve, and strips the forests bare. in his temple everything says, "glory!"

yahweh sat enthroned at the a psalm. a song for the dedication of the temple. by david. i will extol you, yahweh, for you have raised me up, and have not made my foes to rejoice over me.

yahweh my god, i cried to you, and you have healed me.

yahweh, you have brought up my soul from sheol. you have kept me alive, that i should not go down to the pit.

sing praise to yahweh, you saints of his. give thanks to his holy name.

for his anger is but for a moment. his favor is for a lifetime. weeping may stay for the night, but joy comes in the morning.

as for me, i said in my prosperity, "i shall never be moved."

you, yahweh, when you favored me, made my mountain stand strong; but when you hid your face, i was troubled.

i cried to you, yahweh. i made supplication to the lord:

"what profit is there in my destruction, if i go down to the pit? shall the dust praise you? shall it declare your truth?

hear, yahweh, and have mercy on me. yahweh, be my helper."

by david. a contemplative psalm. blessed is he whose disobedience is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

blessed is the man to whom yahweh doesn't impute iniquity, in whose spirit there is no deceit.

when i kept silence, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long.

for day and night your hand was heavy on me. my strength was sapped in the heat of summer. selah.

i acknowledged my sin to you. i didn't hide my iniquity. i said, i will confess my transgressions to yahweh, and you forgave the iniquity of my sin. selah.

for this, let everyone who is godly pray to you in a time when you may be found. surely when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach to him.

you are my hiding place. you will preserve me from trouble. you will surround me with songs of deliverance. selah.

i will instruct you and teach you in the way which you shall go. i will counsel you with my eye on you.

don't be like the horse, or like the mule, which have no understanding, who are controlled by bit and bridle, or else they will not come near to you.

many sorrows come to the wicked, but loving kindness shall surround him who trusts in yahweh.

be glad in yahweh, and rejoice, you righteous! shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart!

rejoice in yahweh, you righteous! praise is fitting for the upright.

give thanks to yahweh with the lyre. sing praises to him with the harp of ten strings. sing to him a new song. play skillfully with a shout of joy!

for yahweh's word is right. all his work is done in faithfulness.

he loves righteousness and justice. the earth is full of the loving kindness of yahweh.

by yahweh's word, the heavens were made; all their army by the breath of his mouth.

he gathers the waters of the sea together as a heap. he lays up the deeps in storehouses.

let all the earth fear yahweh. let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

for he spoke, and it was done. he commanded, and it stood firm.

yahweh brings the counsel of the nations to nothing. he makes the thoughts of the peoples to be of no effect.

the counsel of yahweh stands fast forever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

blessed is the nation whose god is yahweh, the people whom he has chosen for his own inheritance.

yahweh looks from heaven. he sees all the sons of men.

from the place of his habitation he looks out on all the inhabitants of the earth, he who fashions all of their hearts; and he considers all of their works.

there is no king saved by the multitude of an army. a mighty man is not delivered by great strength.

a horse is a vain thing for safety, neither does he deliver any by his great power.

behold, yahweh's eye is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his loving kindness; to deliver their soul from death, to keep them alive in famine.

our soul has waited for yahweh. he is our help and our shield.

for our heart rejoices in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.

come, you children, listen to me. i will teach you the fear of yahweh.

who is someone who desires life, and loves many days, that he may see good?

keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking lies.

depart from evil, and do good. seek peace, and pursue it.

yahweh's eyes are toward the righteous. his ears listen to their cry.

yahweh's face is against those who do evil, to cut off their memory from the earth.

the righteous cry, and yahweh hears, and delivers them out of all their troubles.

yahweh is near to those who have a broken heart, and saves those who have a crushed spirit.

many are the afflictions of the righteous, but yahweh delivers him out of them all.

for the chief musician. by david, the servant of yahweh. an inner sanctuary is within my heart about the disobedience of the wicked: "there is no fear of god before his eyes."

for he flatters himself in his own eyes, too much to detect and hate his sin.

the words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit. he has ceased to be wise and to do good.

he plots iniquity on his bed. he sets himself in a way that is not good. he doesn't abhor evil.

your loving kindness, yahweh, is in the heavens. your faithfulness reaches to the skies.

your righteousness is like the mountains of god. your judgments are like a great deep. yahweh, you preserve man and animal.

the mouth of the righteous talks of wisdom. his tongue speaks justice.

the law of his god is in his heart. none of his steps shall slide.

the wicked watches the righteous, and seeks to kill him.

yahweh will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.

wait for yahweh, and keep his way, and he will exalt you to inherit the land. when the wicked are cut off, you shall see it.

i have seen the wicked in great power, spreading himself like a green tree in its native soil.

but he passed away, and behold, he was not. yes, i sought him, but he could not be found.

mark the perfect man, and see the upright, for there is a future for the man of peace.

as for transgressors, they shall be destroyed together. the future of the wicked shall be cut off.

but the salvation of the righteous is from yahweh. he is their stronghold in the time of trouble.

yahweh helps them, and rescues them. he rescues them from the wicked, and saves them, because they have taken refuge in him.

a psalm by david, for a memorial. yahweh, don't rebuke me in your wrath, neither chasten me in your hot displeasure.

for your arrows have pierced me, your hand presses hard on me.

there is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation, neither is there any health in my bones because of my sin.

for my iniquities have gone over my head. as a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me.

my wounds are loathsome and corrupt, because of my foolishness.

i am pained and bowed down greatly. i go mourning all day long.

for my waist is filled with burning. there is no soundness in my flesh.

i am faint and severely bruised. i have groaned by reason of the anguish of my heart.

lord, all my desire is before you. my groaning is not hidden from you.

my heart throbs. my strength fails me. as for the light of my eyes, it has also left me.

my lovers and my friends stand aloof from my plague. my kinsmen stand far away.

they also who seek after my life lay snares. those who seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and meditate deceits all day long.

my soul thirsts for god, for the living god. when shall i come and appear before god?

my tears have been my food day and night, while they continually ask me, "where is your god?"

these things i remember, and pour out my soul within me, how i used to go with the crowd, and led them to god's house, with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping a holy day.

why are you in despair, my soul? why are you disturbed within me? hope in god! for i shall still praise him for the saving help of his presence.

my god, my soul is in despair within me. therefore i remember you from the land of the jordan, the heights of hermon, from the hill mizar.

deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls. all your waves and your billows have swept over me.

yahweh will command his loving kindness in the daytime. in the night his song shall be with me: a prayer to the god of my life.

i will ask god, my rock, "why have you forgotten me? why do i go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?"

for the chief musician. by the sons of korah. a contemplative psalm. we have heard with our ears, god; our fathers have told us, what work you did in their days, in the days of old.

you drove out the nations with your hand, but you planted them. you afflicted the peoples, but you spread them abroad.

for they didn't get the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them; but your right hand, and your arm, and the light of your face, because you were favorable to them.

you are my king, god. command victories for jacob!

through you, will we push down our adversaries. through your name, will we tread them under who rise up against us.

for i will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.

but you have saved us from our adversaries, and have shamed those who hate us.

in god we have made our boast all day long, we will give thanks to your name forever. selah.

my mouth will speak words of wisdom. my heart shall utter understanding.

i will incline my ear to a proverb. i will open my riddle on the harp.

why should i fear in the days of evil, when iniquity at my heels surrounds me?

those who trust in their wealth, and boast in the multitude of their riches — none of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give god a ransom for him.

for the redemption of their life is costly, no payment is ever enough, that he should live on forever, that he should not see corruption.

for he sees that wise men die; likewise the fool and the senseless perish, and leave their wealth to others.

their inward thought is that their houses will endure forever, and their dwelling places to all generations. they name their lands after themselves.

but man, despite his riches, doesn't endure. he is like the animals that perish.

this is the destiny of those who are foolish, and of those who approve their sayings. selah.

don't be afraid when a man is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased; for when he dies he will carry nothing away. his glory won't descend after him.

though while he lived he blessed his soul — and men praise you when you do well for yourself — he shall go to the generation of his fathers. they shall never see the light.

you love evil more than good, lying rather than speaking the truth. selah.

you love all devouring words, you deceitful tongue.

god will likewise destroy you forever. he will take you up, and pluck you out of your tent, and root you out of the land of the living. selah.

the righteous also will see it, and fear, and laugh at him, saying,

"behold, this is the man who didn't make god his strength, but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness."

but as for me, i am like a green olive tree in god's house. i trust in god's loving kindness forever and ever.

for the chief musician. to the tune of "silent dove in distant lands." a poem by david, when the philistines seized him in gath. be merciful to me, god, for man wants to swallow me up. all day long, he attacks and oppresses me.

my enemies want to swallow me up all day long, for they are many who fight proudly against me.

when i am afraid, i will put my trust in you.

in god, i praise his word. in god, i put my trust. i will not be afraid. what can flesh do to me?

all day long they twist my words. all their thoughts are against me for evil.

they conspire and lurk, watching my steps, they are eager to take my life.

surely men of low degree are just a breath, and men of high degree are a lie. in the balances they will go up. they are together lighter than a breath. don't trust in oppression. don't become vain in robbery. if riches increase, don't set your heart on them.

god has spoken once; twice i have heard this, that power belongs to god.

also to you, lord, belongs loving kindness, for you reward every man according to his work.

a psalm by david, when he was in the desert of judah. god, you are my god. i will earnestly seek you. my soul thirsts for you. my flesh longs for you, in a dry and weary land, where there is no water.

so i have seen you in the sanctuary, watching your power and your glory.

because your loving kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise you.

so i will bless you while i live. i will lift up my hands in your name.

in his days, the righteous shall flourish, and abundance of peace, until the moon is no more.

he shall have dominion also from sea to sea, from the river to the ends of the earth.

those who dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him. his enemies shall lick the dust.

the kings of tarshish and of the islands will bring tribute. the kings of sheba and seba shall offer gifts.

yes, all kings shall fall down before him. all nations shall serve him.

for he will deliver the needy when he cries; the poor, who has no helper.

he will have pity on the poor and needy. he will save the souls of the needy.

he will redeem their soul from oppression and violence. their blood will be precious in his sight.

they shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of sheba. men shall pray for him continually. they shall bless him all day long.

a psalm by asaph. surely god is good to israel, to those who are pure in heart.

but as for me, my feet were almost gone. my steps had nearly slipped.

for i was envious of the arrogant, when i saw the prosperity of the wicked.

for there are no struggles in their death, but their strength is firm.

they are free from burdens of men, neither are they plagued like other men.

therefore pride is like a chain around their neck. violence covers them like a garment.

their eyes bulge with fat. their minds pass the limits of conceit.

they scoff and speak with malice. in arrogance, they threaten oppression.

your adversaries have roared in the middle of your assembly. they have set up their standards as signs.

they behaved like men wielding axes, cutting through a thicket of trees.

a contemplation by asaph.
hear my teaching, my people.
turn your ears to the words of my mouth.

i will open my mouth in a parable. i will utter dark sayings of old,

which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

we will not hide them from their children, telling to the generation to come the praises of yahweh, his strength, and his wondrous deeds that he has done.

for he established a testimony in jacob, and appointed a teaching in israel, which he commanded our fathers,
that they should make them
known to their children;

that the generation to come might know, even the children who should be born; who should arise and tell their children,

that they might set their hope in god, and not forget god's deeds, but keep his commandments,

and might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation that didn't make their hearts loyal, whose spirit was not steadfast with god.

the children of ephraim, being armed and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.

they didn't keep god's covenant, and refused to walk in his law.

they forgot his doings, his wondrous deeds that he had shown them.

he did marvelous things in the sight of their fathers, in the land of egypt, in the field of zoan.

he split the sea, and caused them to pass through. he made the waters stand as a heap.

in the daytime he also led them with a cloud, and all night with a light of fire.

he split rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.

he brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

yet they still went on to sin against him, to rebel against the most high in the desert.

they tempted god in their heart by asking food according to their desire.

yes, they spoke against god. they said, "can god prepare a table in the wilderness?

therefore yahweh heard, and was angry. a fire was kindled against jacob, anger also went up against israel, because they didn't believe in god, and didn't trust in his salvation.

yet he commanded the skies above, and opened the doors of heaven.

he rained down manna on them to eat, and gave them food from the sky.

man ate the bread of angels. he sent them food to the full.

he caused the east wind to blow in the sky. by his power he guided the south wind.

he rained also meat on them as the dust; winged birds as the sand of the seas.

for all this they still sinned, and didn't believe in his wondrous works.

therefore he consumed their days in vanity, and their years in terror.

when he killed them, then they inquired after him. they returned and sought god earnestly.

they remembered that god was their rock, the most high god, their redeemer.

but they flattered him with their mouth, and lied to him with their tongue.

for their heart was not right with him, neither were they faithful in his covenant.

but he, being merciful, forgave iniquity, and didn't destroy them. yes, many times he turned his anger away, and didn't stir up all his wrath.

he remembered that they were but flesh, a wind that passes away, and doesn't come again.

how often they rebelled against him in the wilderness, and grieved him in the desert!

he led them safely, so that they weren't afraid, but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

he brought them to the border of his sanctuary, to this mountain, which his right hand had taken.

he also drove out the nations before them, allotted them for an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of israel to dwell in their tents.

yet they tempted and rebelled against the most high god, and didn't keep his testimonies; but turned back, and dealt treacherously like their fathers. they were turned aside like a deceitful bow.

for they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their engraved images.

when god heard this, he was angry, and greatly abhorred israel;

so that he abandoned the tent of shiloh, the tent which he placed among men; and delivered his strength into captivity, his glory into the adversary's hand.

you cleared the ground for it.
it took deep root, and filled the land.

the mountains were covered with its shadow. its boughs were like god's cedars.

it sent out its branches to the sea, its shoots to the river.

why have you broken down its walls, so that all those who pass by the way pluck it?

the boar out of the wood ravages it. the wild animals of the field feed on it.

turn again, we beg you, god heaven, and see, and visit this vine,

the stock which your right hand planted, the branch that you made strong for yourself.

it's burned with fire. it's cut for the chief musician. on an instrument of gath. by asaph. sing aloud to god, our strength! make a joyful shout to the god of jacob!

raise a song, and bring here the tambourine, the pleasant lyre with the harp.

blow the trumpet at the new moon, at the full moon, on our feast day.

for it is a statute for israel, an ordinance of the god of jacob.

he appointed it in joseph for a testimony, when he went out over the land of egypt, i heard a language that i didn't know.

"i removed his shoulder from the burden. his hands were freed from the basket.

you called in trouble, and i delivered you. i answered you in the secret place of thunder. i tested you at the waters of meribah." selah.

"hear, my people, and i will testify to you, israel, if you would listen to me!

there shall be no strange god in you, neither shall you worship any foreign god.

a song. a psalm by the sons of korah. for the chief musician. to the tune of "the suffering of affliction." a contemplation by heman, the ezrahite. yahweh, the god of my salvation, i have cried day and night before you. let my prayer enter into your presence. turn your ear to my cry.

for my soul is full of troubles. my life draws near to sheol.

i am counted among those who go down into the pit. i am like a man who has no help, set apart among the dead, like the slain who lie in the grave, whom you remember no more. they are cut off from your hand.

you have laid me in the lowest pit, in the darkest depths.

your wrath lies heavily on me. you have afflicted me with all your waves. selah.

you have taken my friends from me. you have made me an abomination to them. i am confined, and i can't escape.

my eyes are dim from grief. i have called on you daily, yahweh. i have spread out my hands to you.

are your wonders made known in the dark? or your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

but to you, yahweh, i have cried. in the morning, my prayer comes before you.

yahweh, why do you reject my soul? why do you hide your face from me?

i am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up. while i suffer your terrors, i am distracted.

your fierce wrath has gone over me. your terrors have cut me off.

they came around me like water all day long. they completely engulfed me.

you have put lover and friend far from me, and my friends into darkness.

a psalm. a song for the sabbath day. it is a good thing to give thanks to yahweh, to sing praises to your name, most high;

to proclaim your loving kindness in the morning, and your faithfulness every night, with the ten-stringed lute, with the harp, and with the melody of the lyre.

for you, yahweh, have made me glad through your work. i will triumph in the works of your hands.

how great are your works, yahweh! your thoughts are very deep.

a psalm. sing to yahweh a new song, for he has done marvelous things! his right hand, and his holy arm, have worked salvation for him.

yahweh has made known his salvation. he has openly shown his righteousness in the sight of the nations.

he has remembered his loving kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of israel. all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our god.

make a joyful noise to yahweh, all the earth! burst out and sing for joy, yes, sing praises!

sing praises to yahweh with the harp, with the harp and the voice of melody.

with trumpets and sound of the ram's horn, make a joyful noise before the king, yahweh. let the sea roar with its fullness; the world, and those who dwell therein.

let the rivers clap their hands. let the mountains sing for joy together.

let them sing before yahweh, for he comes to judge the earth. he will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with equity.

yahweh is great in zion. he is high above all the peoples.

let them praise your great and awesome name. he is holy!

the king's strength also loves justice. you do establish equity. you execute justice and righteousness in jacob.

exalt yahweh our god. worship at his footstool. he is holy!

moses and aaron were among his priests, samuel among those who call on his name; they called on yahweh, and he answered them.

he spoke to them in the pillar of cloud. they kept his testimonies, the statute that he gave them.

you answered them, yahweh our god. you are a god who forgave them, although you took vengeance for their doings.

exalt yahweh, our god. worship at his holy hill, for yahweh, our god, is holy!

a psalm of thanksgiving.
shout for joy to yahweh, all you lands!

serve yahweh with gladness.
come before his presence with singing.

know that yahweh, he is god.
it is he who has made us, and we are his. we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

enter into his gates with thanksgiving, into his courts with praise. give thanks to him, and bless his name.

for yahweh is good. his loving kindness endures forever, his faithfulness to all generations.

bless yahweh, my soul. yahweh, my god, you are very great. you are clothed with honor and majesty.

he covers himself with light as with a garment. he stretches out the heavens like a curtain.

he lays the beams of his rooms in the waters. he makes the clouds his chariot. he walks on the wings of the wind.

he makes his messengers winds; his servants flames of fire.

he laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be moved forever.

you covered it with the deep as with a cloak. the waters stood above the mountains.

at your rebuke they fled. at the voice of your thunder they hurried away.

the mountains rose, the valleys sank down, to the place which you had assigned to them.

you have set a boundary that they may not pass over; that they don't turn again to cover the earth.

he sends springs into the valleys. they run among the mountains.

they give drink to every animal of the field. the wild donkeys quench their thirst. the birds of the sky nest by them. they sing among the branches.

he waters the mountains from his rooms. the earth is filled with the fruit of your works.

he causes the grass to grow for the livestock, and plants for man to cultivate, that he may produce food out of the earth:

wine that makes glad the heart of man, oil to make his face to shine, and bread that strengthens man's heart.

yahweh's trees are well watered, the cedars of lebanon, which he has planted; where the birds make their nests. the stork makes its home in the cypress trees.

but gave in to craving in the desert, and tested god in the wasteland.

he gave them their request, but sent leanness into their soul.

they envied mooses also in the camp, and aaron, yahweh's saint.

the earth opened and swallowed up dathan, and covered the company of abiram.

a fire was kindled in their company. the flame burned up the wicked.

they made a calf in horeb, and worshiped a molten image.

thus they exchanged their glory for an image of a bull that eats grass.

they forgot god, their savior, who had done great things in egypt, wondrous works in the land of ham, and awesome things by the red sea.

therefore he said that he would destroy them, had mooses, his chosen, not stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, so that he wouldn't destroy them.

yes, they despised the pleasant land. they didn't believe his word, but murmured in their tents, and didn't listen to yahweh's voice.

thus were they defiled with their works, and prostituted themselves in their deeds.

therefore yahweh burned with anger against his people. he abhorred his inheritance.

he gave them into the hand of the nations. those who hated them ruled over them.

their enemies also oppressed them. they were brought into subjection under their hand.

he rescued them many times, but they were rebellious in their counsel, and were brought low in their iniquity.

nevertheless he regarded their distress, when he heard their cry.

he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.

let his posterity be cut off. in the generation following let their name be blotted out.

let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered by yahweh. don't let the sin of his mother be blotted out.

let them be before yahweh continually, that he may cut off their memory from the earth; because he didn't remember to show kindness, but persecuted the poor and needy man, the broken in heart, to kill them.

yes, he loved cursing, and it came to him. he didn't delight in blessing, and it was far from him.

he clothed himself also with cursing as with his garment. it came into his inward parts like water, like oil into his bones.

let it be to him as the clothing with which he covers himself, for the belt that is always around him.

this is the reward of my adversaries from yahweh, of those who speak evil against my soul.

but deal with me, yahweh the lord, for your name's sake, because your loving kindness is good, deliver me; for i am poor and needy. my heart is wounded within me.

i fade away like an evening shadow. i am shaken off like a locust.

it is better to take refuge in yahweh, than to put confidence in man.

it is better to take refuge in yahweh, than to put confidence in princes.

all the nations surrounded me, but in yahweh's name, i cut them off.

they surrounded me, yes, they surrounded me. in yahweh's name i indeed cut them off.

they surrounded me like bees. they are quenched like the burning thorns. in yahweh's name i cut them off.

you pushed me back hard, to make me fall, but yahweh helped me.

yah is my strength and song. he has become my salvation.

the voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous. "the right hand of yahweh does valiantly.

for the scepter of wickedness won't remain over the allotment of the righteous; so that the righteous won't use their hands to do evil.

do good, yahweh, to those who are good, to those who are upright in their hearts.

but as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways, yahweh will lead them away with the how can we sing yahweh's song in a foreign land?

if i forget you, jerusalem, let my right hand forget its skill.

let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth if i don't remember you; if i don't prefer jerusalem above my chief joy.

remember, yahweh, against the children of edom, the day of jerusalem; who said, "raze it! raze it even to its foundation!"

daughter of babylon, doomed to destruction, he will be happy who rewards you, as you have served us.
happy shall he be, who takes and dashes your little ones against the rock.

a psalm by david. hear my prayer, yahweh. listen to my petitions. in your faithfulness and righteousness, relieve me.

don't enter into judgment with your servant, for in your sight no man living is righteous.

for the enemy pursues my soul. he has struck my life down to the ground. he has made me live in dark places, as those who have been long dead.

therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within me. my heart within me is desolate.

i remember the days of old. i meditate on all your doings. i contemplate the work of your hands.

i spread out my hands to you. my soul thirsts for you, like a parched land. selah.

hurry to answer me, yahweh.
my spirit fails. don't hide your face from me, so that i don't become like those who go down into the pit.

cause me to hear your loving kindness in the morning, for i trust in you. cause me to know the way in which i should walk, for i lift up my soul to you.

deliver me, yahweh, from my enemies. i flee to you to hide me.

teach me to do your will, for you are my god. your spirit is good. lead me in the land of uprightness.

revive me, yahweh, for your name's sake. in your righteousness, bring my soul out of trouble.

in your loving kindness, cut off my enemies, and destroy all those who afflict my soul, for i am your servant.

my loving kindness, my fortress, my high tower, my deliverer, my shield, and he in whom i take refuge; who subdues my people under me.

yahweh, what is man, that you care for him? or the son of man, that you think of him?

man is like a breath. his days are like a shadow that passes away.

part your heavens, yahweh, and come down. touch the mountains, and they will smoke.

throw out lightning, and scatter them. send out your arrows, and rout them.

stretch out your hand from above, rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters, out of the hands of foreigners; whose mouths speak deceit, whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

i will sing a new song to you, god. on a ten-stringed lyre, i will sing praises to you.

you are he who gives salvation to kings, who rescues david, his servant, from the deadly sword.

rescue me, and deliver me out of the hands of foreigners, whose mouths speak deceit, whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

then our sons will be like well-nurtured plants, our daughters like pillars carved to adorn a palace.

our barns are full, filled with all kinds of provision. our sheep produce thousands and ten thousands in our fields.

our oxen will pull heavy loads. there is no breaking in, and no going away, and no outcry in our streets.

happy are the people who are in such a situation. happy are the people whose god is yahweh.
